SNEAK THIEF LIFTED A LEMON.

A sneak thief lifted the pretty little black medicine grip, which Dr. Hodgins carries his pills in, out of the back of the doctor's auto on Wednesday evening, while the doctor was making a call. The thief supposed, evidently, that he had got hold of something va nable, for he carried it haif a mile to a dark, vacant lot and tried to pick the lock. Failing in this he slashed into the leather and explored among th phials of medicines for something to carry off. In disgust at what he did found the next morning and returned | Eureka, Feb. 7.
